After School Activities:

The JV Baseball team finally got to see some action last night! Unfortunately, the team came up just short losing to Deerfield by a score of 20-16. There were a lot of positive takeaways from the game and the team is looking forward to being back in action tomorrow against Williams Bay.

HD United fell to Watertown Luther Prep last night in non-conference soccer action 1-0. Prep scored an early goal and the defense got tough after that and played 75 minutes of shutout soccer. The offense had numerous opportunities to tie the game that just missed. Sofia Zurawski had 4 saves and Claryssa Klentz had 6. HD United hosts SWCHA Saints on Thursday for a 7pm Parents night Game.

Last night the track team competed in their 2nd Trailways Dual meet in Horicon. The wind played a big factor during the meet, but we still came out with a few personal best times and distances. Joe Beavers finished 1st in the 110 meter hurdles, 200, and the discus setting a new school record. Colter Sliper finished 1st in the shot put and 2nd in the discus. Koal Her finished second in the 800. Serenity Frane finished 2nd in the 100 and 3rd in the high jump.
