Meeting called to order

AGENDA:

Curriculum Topics

1. Phlebotomy Academy - discussion on required prerequisites and cost. Students in the fall will be taking a prerequisite dual credit Genetics course at the high school. Cost of the Academy will be $426.20 + $85.72 (Ebook) or $120.48 (Textbook) for a total of $511.92(Ebook) or $546.68 (Textbook). Class registration deadline is October 22nd. Class will begin in November, and is held outside of regular school hours. The school will be eligible for ACT 59 reimbursement funds, when students successfully complete the program. The school only receives money for 1 credential that the student earned. This amount varies from year to year based on the formula used to establish reimbursement to the districts and the number of schools applying. The ACT 59 reimbursement from last year was $703 per senior who earned a credential.
